Section 1: Baptisms (1838-1870)

Section 2: Marriages (1838-1870)

Use the Adobe search feature to find a name. Be sure to check all spelling variations (e.g. Bridget, Brigit, Brigid, etc.).

I am researching the following names from Ellicott City:

Bohan / Bohan

Concannon

Connor / O'Connor

Fahey / Fahy

Maloney

McGowan

Norton

The following is transcribed from the out-of-print book St. Paul's Church and Parish, Ellicott City, Maryland. It's Origins and Development. A SKETCH.

Author: Brother Fabrician of Jesus, Pub: Foley Bros. Printers Baltimore, 1910.

The following is from St. Paul's first registry 1839-1870. It does not show the parent's names for Baptisms and marriages. The parent's names appear on the original records. The books from St. Paul's have been microfilmed and are available for viewing at the Maryland Hall of Records in Annapolis.

BAPTISMAL ROSTER.

The following names appear on the baptismal register for the year 1838-9: Campbell, Jane Margaret, daughter of Bernard Campbell, Esq., baptized by Rev. Charles I. White, D. D. Sponsors: -Captain William Kennedy and his wife, Mary Ann. The sponsors were the well-known founders of St. Ann's Church, York Road, Baltimore.

John Fahey, son of the then oldest living parishioner.

Thomas Edwin Hackett.

Margaret Wheatley.

John Ward. Appended to this name is the puzzling-note "Railroad - Waterloo."

The last entry in the old Registry is this:
"Baptised (I Martin Farretty (possibly Faherty)-Wm. E. STARR, Pastor"

NOTE.

In several places under Father Verot's and Father Foley's pastorate the names of Joseph Unthank and John Unthank occur as sponsors. It is evident that they were good Catholics and zealous supporters of their worthy pastors. It appears that they resided in the vicinity of Sykesville, Md. We subjoin a brief account of them.

THE, ONTHANK FAMILY.

The proper spelling of this name is with an O, not with U: it is so inscribed on the family tombstones in the old graveyard here. Although this name appears to be of Teutonic derivation, yet the Onthinks were all born in Ireland, as they themselves averred. They first lived in the vicinity of Sykesville, but later on removed to Ellicott City, residing on the west side of the Patapsco, a little below the town, until their home was destroyed by fire. They then removed to Baltimore, where some of the family still reside. Joseph Onthank was a classmate of Cardinal Gibbons, and died in deacon's orders. The mother of Rev. J. A. Cunnane, rector of St. Andrew's, Baltimore, was of this family, a sister of Joseph Onthank. (See Marriage Register, Appendix 1). Another sister, Miss Alice Onthank, resides in Baltimore; and still another married Mr. Patrick Rogers, and removed to Alleghany County, Md. Piety and devotion to Mother Church was an heirloom in this family."-Ignotus.

Another prominent sponsor under Fathers Foley and O'Neill was Denis Mulligan, recently deceased, and at that time the oldest living parishioner. It were ungrateful not to record here that this venerable man left, at his death, the sum total of his life's savings to the church wherein he had served to faithfully for nearly eighty years. The legacy consisted of $5,000 for the Christian -education of the children of the parish. Peace to his ashes! May the heavens be his bed!
