The film is the small size 16mm. It is recorded as a negative to better show difficult areas. Most pages are viewable but some are in such poor condition that one must guess at what is written. Even on good pages the handwriting is tricky. Use the Adobe search feature to find names. Be sure to try spelling variations (e.g. Bridget, Briget, Brigid, etc.).

This file is an analysis of Marriage (82 pages) and Baptism (435 pages) records of Portumna Parish between 1830-1891. I gathered selected records of interest based on the last names I am researching. I am specifically interested in the following names:

BOHAN/BOOHAN
MULDOON
HIBBITTS
FAHY
CONNOR

I have selected records that have these names either as the subject or as one of the witnesses. I have probably missed many names due to misreading the old handwriting.

Film Notes:
MARRIAGES.

There are 5 Baptisms recorded on Marriages page 56. There is an "X" over all five. They are in the Spring of 1866.

BAPTISMS

Pages 26-27 are blank but there is not a break in dates. Page 70 is missing - this is June 1835. There are no pages for 1851 Baptisms - It is blank for pages for 202-206. The female Baptism sponsors may be using their maiden names according to Evva C. Benson, AG. She is the instructor for the free online Irish genealogy classes at the LDS Web site: familysearch.org

Two pages were out of sequence in the film. The JPEG photograph files are in order.

The middle of Page 169 switches from December 19, 1846 to January 1844. New entries from 1844 - 1846 continue until page 181, when 1847 begins - (Were the records of another Parish absorbed?)

From the beginning 1842 until the summer of that year, the town lands were noted on Baptisms.

Family Grouping Analysis.

There are three other Richard BOHANS Prior to 1860. The FIRST group has their last child in 1832. 1855 Griffith's Valuation has two Richards in Galway - One at Coolnageeragh and the other at Gallows Hill in Portumna. The two families abruptly stop having children after 1858. After 1858 the only Richard BOHAN having any children is married to Catherine MULDOON.
